FIVE REASONS TO ELOPE AT RIVERWOOD

The Cost: Many couples are paying for the wedding themselves and can bypass the cost of a large wedding but still have the beautiful pictures in an amazing setting.

No Stress: From the perfect setting for pictures to customized wedding vows provided by our in-house chaplain Riverwood Mansion is a One-Stop-Shop for all of your intimate wedding details.

Short Notice: Riverwood Mansion is known for covering all the details that captures the personality of the bride and groom while working within a limited timeframe. We can create a personal, intimate wedding celebration with short notice and no guests will ever know.

The Wedding Vows: Our ordained Chaplain, Sue Davies-Rephan, has a large selection of wedding vows to choose from that include traditional Christian, modern, and secular with the option of adding on a unity candle or sand ceremony.

The Memories: The rich history of this magnificent mansion with its sculpted gardens creates a magical backdrop for your wedding pictures. When all is said and done... the pictures are what lasts forever.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Couples are responsible for obtaining a Tennessee marriage license prior to their wedding ceremony in Tennessee. Marriage licenses are issued in each Tennessee County by the County Clerk and are valid for 30 days. The office serving Nashville, TN is the Davidson County Clerk. Their web address is www.nashville-clerk.com/living/marriage-license/ and their telephone number is (615) 862-6256. The Davidson County Clerk's office has returned to its previous location in the Howard School Office Building at 700 Second Avenue South in Nashville. Tennessee marriage licenses require the signature of the bride and groom (obtained upon application at the clerk's office) and of the officiant. There is an optional witness signature option on the state form, but this is not required by law. If you need to obtain a marriage license on Saturday please contact the Cheatham County Clerk at 615-792-5179 or online at www.cheathamcountyttn.gov/government/countyclerk/index.html. Couples coming from the Memphis area, especially those in Arkansas or Mississippi may choose to obtain their marriage license locally at the Shelby County Clerk in Memphis. You can visit their website at <http://www.shelbycountyttn.gov/index.aspx?NID=574> or call (901) 222-3000. Couples coming from the Chattanooga area, especially those coming from north Georgia, may want to obtain their license locally in Chattanooga at the Hamilton County Clerk. Their website is <http://www.countyclerkanytime.com/marriage/default.htm> or call (423) 209-6501.
